Dear Parents and Carers,

Attitudes with Altitude: We have started the year thinking about the importance of the right attitude, linking it to the motto: 'your attitude determines your altitude'. Mrs Frazer, with the help of Miss Kelley and Miss Privilege, have created stunning displays in our infant and junior halls drawing attention to how a good attitude helps us to succeed in life.

Visitors to Hatton Hill are always impressed with the excellent attitude of our pupils. Indeed, the only barrier to Hatton Hill achieving outstanding for 'behaviour and attitudes' during our Ofsted inspection last year was poor attendance. - ✓ Being present (in school and learning!)
- ✓ Manners (polite and respectful)
- ✓ Hardworking (with energy and commitment)
- ✓ Resilience (or bouncebackability)
- ✓ Determination (having firmness of purpose)
- ✓ Kindness (friendly, generous and considerate)

Of course, with 400 children onsite things can go wrong. Children will make mistakes as they learn how to navigate the increasing challenges and complexities of life. As an inclusive school, some of our children also struggle to regulate their emotions from time to time. I am always impressed with the understanding and support your children show each other. If there are any concerns, parents and carers should approach the classteacher in the first instance. Please remember that we have the most success when school and

This year, I will be leading tours of the school which can be booked by contacting Miss Taylor in the office: 0151 928 7012. If anyone can display a poster in the local area, we would be grateful, and please pass the information on to families you know. Thank you.
